

Re: Federal Corporation Revival

Dear Clients:

Revival allows a dissolved corporation to be restored to its previous legal position in the same manner and to the same extent as if it had not been dissolved. A revival retroactively validates the business and affairs of the corporation during the time of its dissolution.

The Federal Government fee for Revival is $250.00, the processing time is 10-15 business days. The dissolved corporation is required to file its outstanding annual returns with Corporations Canada and pay all prescribed fees, usually for the two years immediately preceding the revival ($12.00 per year).

Please provide your Corporation KEY.

- If changes were made to the information contained in the articles of the corporation, you are required to update this information by first reviving the corporation and then filing Articles of Amendment.
- With respect to the corporation's name, the revived corporation must apply for the revival using the same corporation name it had at the time of its dissolution. At the time of the revival, if Corporations Canada does not approve the name because it is prohibited (e.g., if it is likely to be confused with a corporate name acquired by another corporation between the date of the dissolution and the date of revival), a numbered name will be assigned to the revived corporation. If this is the case, once the Certificate of Revival is issued, the revived corporation may request a new corporate name by filing Articles of Amendment.

Attached please find:

1. Price List - Our service fee is listed as F08 on the price list; this service covers the Revival filing, outstanding Annual Return filing and updating for the business address & directors;
2. Revival information form; if your business address has changed since the time of dissolution, please provide the new address for updating; if there has been any directors' change, please provide the names & addresses of the directors who will be on board after the revival.

Please send us back the signed forms and we will prepare the Articles of Revival for you to sign. Should you have any questions please do not hesitate to contact us. Thank you very much!

Sincerely yours,

Sandra Chen / Susan Ding
